

BALDO TRAIL FEST - REGULATION

This regulation is subject to updates and modifications until the wording "final regulation" appears.

1. ORGANIZATION

The ASD Verona Trail Runners, a UISP affiliate, in collaboration with the Municipality of Caprino Veronese (VR) and local associations, is organizing the 3rd edition of the "BALDO TRAIL FEST", trail running sport event on Sunday October 1st 2023.

2. RACES

Trail running races in natural environment on the paths of Monte Baldo with departure and arrival in Caprino Veronese (VR). The races take place in a single stage.

Competitive timed races with ranking:

BIG BALDO

Start 7.30 AM

Distance 45 km – 2950 m+

MEDIUM BALDO

Start 8.00 AM

Distance 30km – 1950 m+

SHORT BALDO

Start 9.00 AM

Distance 20km – 1200 m+

3. PARTECIPATION CONDITIONS

The competitions are open to athletes who have turned 18 at the time of registration, in possession of a competitive medical certificate with the suitability for ATHLETICS, valid on the date of the competition.

Certificates with other wordings/specialties (running, triathlon, etc.) will not be accepted.

Participation is limited to a maximum of 500 athletes on the three competitive races.

Entries from athletes who are serving disqualifications for doping in any discipline will not be accepted.

4. COURSES – RUNNERS COMMITMENT

The tracks are technical and demanding, almost entirely on single tracks. Participation requires adequate physical preparation and self-management skills. The routes take place on paths or evident traces with adequate signs; they also involve steep slopes and short sections exposed but protected with barriers or secured with cables and chains and sometimes assisted by specialized personnel (Alpine Rescue, etc.). They require experience in mountain running, "alpine environment knowledge", suitable footwear and equipment, good training.

It is mandatory to always stay on the race track, which will be marked with signs and marks, as well as tables with the race or VeronaTrailRunners logo.

Competitors are required to pay attention to danger signs and to follow all the indications given on the signs that will be displayed along the course.

The road book and the links to the GPS tracks will be published on the website www.veronatrailrunners.it in the section dedicated to the routes

The official tracking can have variations compared to the GPS track, always follow the trail:

	Dist.	El. gain	Start time	Cut off time	Max time	Time limit
Big Baldo	45 km	2950 m+	7:30	25° km 1 PM	11h	6:30 PM
Medium Baldo	30 km	1950 m+	8:00	No	9h	5:00 PM
Short Baldo	20 km	1200 m+	9:00	No	8h	5:00 PM

The Organization reserves the right to vary or increase the "time gates" at any time, as well as the right to modify the route in the event of dangerous situations or adverse weather conditions.

The decisions taken by race judges, by the safety officers are communicated during the briefing or by those in charge on the route will prevail.

The timing service is with chip, provided by WEDOSPORT

Before departure, it is necessary to enter the respective closed areas by registering. Personal assistance is forbidden, and it is forbidden to be accompanied on the route by another person who is not duly registered.

When passing through the checkpoints, each participant must make sure they have been registered.

Failure to register will result in exclusion from the ranking.

12. END-RACE SERVICE

An "End-Race" service is foreseen which will have such a pace to reach the finish line within the maximum time. Any athletes who, when reached by the "End-Race", do not keep up with it will have to stop at the next refreshment point to be taken to the finish line by means of the organization.

13. SECURITY – MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

An Organization Manager is present at each aid station or water point. The ambulance service with doctor, the National Alpine Rescue Corps and Civil Protection will be present. The aid posts are intended to bring assistance to all people in danger with the means of the Organization or through affiliated associations. The rescuers are authorized to evacuate the runners judged in danger by all the means of their convenience. In case of need, for reasons that are in the interest of the rescued person, only and exclusively in the judgment of the Organization, the official Alpine Rescue will be called upon, which will take over the direction of operations and will implement all the appropriate means, including 'helicopter. Any expenses deriving from the use of these means will be borne by the rescued person according to the regulations in force.

A runner subjected to rescue or intervention by a doctor or a rescuer submits in fact to his authority and undertakes to respect his decisions.

Judges, i.e. clearly identifiable people from the organization of the race located on the track, are authorized to suspend competitors deemed unsuitable to continue the race.

14. ABANDONS

In case of race abandon along the route, the competitor is obliged, as soon as he has the possibility, to go to the nearest checkpoint or aid station, communicate his abandonment and the organization will take care of his return to Caprino, with the possibility of the participant to return on foot.

In the event of failure to notify the withdrawal and the consequent start of the athlete's research, any resulting expense will be charged to the athlete himself.

15. COURSE MODIFICATIONS

The Organization reserves the right to change the route or location of the refreshment points at any time, without notice. In case of adverse weather conditions, the departure can be postponed and canceled beyond a certain limit.

In the event of cancellation of the race for reasons not dependent on the organization (e.g. Covid restrictions and/or adverse atmospheric agents and/or other), any methods of reimbursement of fees and/or postponement of the competition to a new date will be communicated.

16. ROAD-BOOK

The road book and the description of the routes will be available on the organization's website, with possible subsequent updates, once the site inspections and definitive tracking have been completed.
